3 BEFORE ADVENT

YEAR C

Sunday 9th November 2025 – Remembrance Sunday

COLLECT

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Job 19.23–27a

A reading from the book of Job.

Job said to his companions: ‘O that my words were written down! O that they were inscribed in a book! O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock for ever! For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth; and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another.’ This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

Take, O take me as I am. Summon up what I shall be. Set your seal upon my heart and live in me.

GOSPEL

Luke 20. 27-38

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. Glory to you O Lord.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus, and asked him a question, ‘Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.’ Jesus said to them, ‘Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.’ This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.

WEYBRIDGE CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

Could you volunteer a couple of hours on Sunday 30th November? We are looking for people to assist with our Christmas Festival which will be held in Church and on our grounds - many hands make light work! There are lots of jobs to do, and everyone is welcome to do something. Please speak to Sue Barnes to get more information. The Christmas Festival is our biggest fundraiser of the year, so we do need everyone’s help to make it a success!

MITZVAH DAY – 23rd NOVEMBER

On Sunday 23rd November, we’ll be joining with North West Surrey Synagogue and Churches Together in Weybridge at Morrison’s to do a food collection for the Runnymede Foodbank. The event will be held from 10-4, and we’ll be handing out flyers for shoppers and suggesting they purchase items for the foodbank. It’s a lovely opportunity to partner with our local synagogue and to show our support after the horrific attack in Manchester. What’s Mitzvah Day? It’s an annual event that brings together people of all faiths and backgrounds to do something positive in the community. We can’t think of a better way to honour the day and were thrilled when the synagogue reached to us to help. Can you give an hour or two on the day? Friends and children are welcome...please sign up here – thank you! Please see Donna Miller with questions. Mitzvah Day 23rd November 2025.

LIVING IN LOVE AND FAITH

The House of Bishops has made a series of key decisions on the future direction of the Church of England’s Living in Love and Faith (LLF) process, which explores questions of relationships, sexuality and marriage. Final proposals will be agreed by them in December. As an inclusive church, we believe in full inclusion for all. Inclusive Church have prepared an open letter to the Bishops. You are invited to add your name, should you choose, to the many people who also believe in equality for all. See Mailer for attachment.
