A PRAYER FOR GROWTH & VISION

Living God, by the guidance of your Holy Spirit, make us heralds of good news in Weybridge. Stir us your people, that in Word and Sacrament, prayer and service we may be inspired to share your love for all, with generosity and joy, imagination and courage; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Cheques should only be made payable to: Weybridge PCC. We have a contactless payment device for card payments in Church.

Reg. Charity No: 1130714. Items for the newsletter and mailer by Tuesday 9am – items to rector@stjamesweybridge.org.uk

COLLECT

Almighty Father, you have given your only Son to die for our sins and to rise again for our justification: grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READINGActs 2.14a, 22–32

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

On the day of Pentecost, Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, 'You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know – this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him, "I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will live in hope. For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption. You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence." Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, "He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption." This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.' This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

An Alleluia heralds the Gospel Reading: (Taizè)

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

GOSPELJohn 20.19–31

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

When it was evening on the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.' But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.' A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.' Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him, 'Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.' Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

POST COMMUNION

Lord God our Father, through our Saviour Jesus Christ you have assured your children of eternal life and in baptism have made us one with him: deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in your love, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

APCM AND VACANCIES

Our Annual Meeting is arranged for Sunday 17th May 11.30am, where we will elect Churchwardens, Treasurer, PCC members, and Deanery Synod Reps. Last year, Steve Mason kindly agreed to cover both Treasurer and Churchwarden on a temporary basis. We must now find a new Churchwarden to replace him. Could this be you? Please do give this vacancy prayer and consideration.

EGHAM BRASS BAND CONCERT

Come to church on Friday 24 April to enjoy Brass on the Open Waves at 8.00 pm. We are fortunate to have the Egham Band, and their talented group of musicians, join us for an evening concert. £10 tickets will be available at the font after church on 19 April or on the door in the evening. Bring your friends and neighbours for a wonderful night out of music and fun. Refreshments will be served during the interval.

SMALL GROUPS AT ST JAMES'

If you have not already joined a small group and would like to do so, or hear more information, please email Fr. Tom at curate@stjamesweybridge.org.uk.
